

Mission Possible

12. St John's College, Cambridge University

Gold Award

1. Visit St John's College.
2. The college's alumni include nine Nobel Prize winners, six Prime Ministers, three archbishops, at least two princes, and three Saints. Is this an achievement we should celebrate? Or does this show that the college is part of an elitist system? What do you think?
3. Discuss your opinion with a classmate, a teacher or your host family.

For English practice on the topic of university, visit:

<http://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org/en/magazine/universities>

Silver Award

1. Visit St John's College.
2. Find out what these are: a) yales, b) chalice, c) turret, d) cloister and e) quadrangle.

For further English listening practice on the topic of going to university visit:

<http://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org/en/uk-culture/whats-university-education-worth>

Bronze award

1. Visit St John's College.
2. Write 3 sentences about which part of the college you like the most and why.

For further English listening practice on the topic of exams, visit:

<http://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org/en/elementary-podcasts/series-04-episode-16>